

I have studied the tight curls on the back of your neck
moving away from me

beyond hopes or failure

your face in the evening schools of long through mornings of wish and ripen

we were always saying goodbye

in the morning schools of long
